About Steve

Kuykendall served in the United States House of Representatives representing California's 36th Congressional District. As a member of the House Armed Services, Science, and Transportation and Infrastructure Committees, he helped craft a plan to pay down the national debt while protecting tax cuts and Social Security.

From 1994 to 1998, Kuykendall served in the California State Assembly where he demanded a full accounting of legislative spending and oversaw the Assembly's first "clean" fiscal audit in ten years. A strong independent leader, he worked to cut government waste, lower taxes, streamline business regulation, improve education, reduce crime and protect California's coastline.

Kuykendall also served as mayor and councilmember for Rancho Palos Verdes; president and trustee of the Peninsula Education Foundation; trustee of the Palos Verdes Peninsula Land Conservancy; and chairman of the Palos Verdes Regional Law Enforcement Committee.

Commissioned as a Marine Corps Second Lieutenant in 1968, Kuykendall served two tours of duty in Vietnam, participating in the effort to stop the North Vietnamese Easter Offensive in 1972. He rose to rank of Captain and retired in 1973 after a permanent shoulder injury. Kuykendall and his wife, Jan live in Long Beach.
